

1 a, an or some?

Underline the right word in each sentence.

- I've got a / some watch.
- Sadie and Joe have got a / some peanuts.
- I've got a / an anorak.
- John and Tina have got an / some apples.
- We've got a / some good camera.
- You've got a / some baseball cap.
- We've got an / some Australian grandfather.
- They've got an / some umbrellas in the shop.

2 some or any?

Complete the sentences with some or any.

- We've got some bananas.
- Have you got trainers?
- I haven't got football socks.
- They've got computer games at home.
- I've got tissues in my pocket.
- We haven't got cousins.
- Have you got brothers and sisters?
- My friends have got great CDs.

3 Possessive 's

One word in each sentence needs an apostrophe ('). Underline the word and write it correctly.

- This is Kates mother.
..... Kate's
- I've got Roberts books.
.....
- We've got Joes tennis racket.
.....

- This is my sisters mobile.
.....

- James is Lauras husband.
.....

- Are they John and Lindas parents?
.....

- Have you got Dads keys?
.....

- That Fiat is my aunt and uncles car.
.....

4 Possessive adjectives

Complete the sentences with possessive adjectives.

- We've got a dog called Max.
Max is our dog.
- He's a student at that school.
That's school.
- I like surfing.
Surfing is favourite sport.
- She's got a calculator.
..... calculator is on the desk.
- They live in this house.
This is house.
- Have you got a watch?
Is this watch?
- Bill and I have got some photos.
They're photos.
- My grandmother and grandfather live in Ottawa.
..... house is in Ottawa.