

1 Revision: can, must should, will

Circle the right words.

- I can't / mustn't forget to take my keys.
- Arsenal will / must probably win the match on Sunday.
- We can't / shouldn't waste water.
- My uncle's here. I can / must hear his voice.
- Don't be scared. The dog will / won't bite you.
- I don't think people should / must hunt animals.
- Where are my sunglasses? I can't / won't find them.
- I must / mustn't see you this afternoon. Can you meet me after school?

2 First conditional

Complete the sentences.

Use 'll, will or won't.

- If she has some lessons, she 'll learn how to swim.
- If the shop is open, I get some milk.
- If you don't take your medicine, you get better.
- If we sit under the trees, we be hot.
- If it isn't too windy, Danny and his friends go sailing tomorrow.
- If you don't care about other people, they care about you.
- If they make a lot of noise, the baby wake up.
- If you don't carry water with you in the desert, you survive.

3 First conditional

Complete the sentences. Use the affirmative or negative form of the verbs.

- If I don't ring , my parents will get worried. (ring)
- If you an omelette, we'll need to buy some eggs. (want)

- If Susan her homework soon, she'll watch the video with us. (finish)
- If you careful, you'll drop those boxes. (be)
- If the rain , we'll go for a walk. (stop).
- If I my hair tonight, I'll wash it tomorrow. (wash)
- If he his ice cream soon, it'll melt. (eat)
- If we to walk home, we'll take the bus. (want)

4 First conditional

Rewrite the sentences in the opposite form.

- If you get ready now, you won't be late.
If you don't get ready now, you'll be late.
- If I pass my exams, my parents will be pleased.
.....
- If it's hot tomorrow, we'll go to the beach.
.....
- If Rob doesn't come to the party, he won't meet my friends.
.....
- If we have a drink now, we won't get thirsty later.
.....
- If you don't wash the glasses carefully, you'll break them.
.....
- If they don't follow the map, they won't find this place.
.....
- If the book is interesting, I'll read it.
.....